SOME DUTCHESS COUNTY, NEW YORK, RESIDENTS, 1761–1763

By KENNETH SCOTT, F.A.S.G.*

Joseph Mabbett, whose account book for the years 1761–1763 is in the manuscript collection of the New-York Historical Society, was in all probability the "Joseph S. Mabbett, of Washington Precinct, merchant," the son of Samuel Mabbett, of Charlotte Precinct, merchant. Joseph was granted letters of administration on his father's estate on 7 March 1787.[1] Washington, as shown on the following map, is an interior town, lying near the center of Dutchess County within the Great Nine Partners Patent. It includes the village of Mabbettsville, named for Jas. Mabbett, a former proprietor.[2]

Both Joseph and Samuel Mabbett must have come to Dutchess County from Queens County, very likely from Hempstead on Long Island, where on 27 July 1748 a Samuel and a Joseph Mabbett witnessed the will of Daniel Kissam, of Madnan's Neck in Hempstead.[3] Samuel, moreover, on 3 July 1744, witnessed a codicil to the will of the prominent Quaker, Samuel Bowne, of Flushing, Queens County.[4]

Samuel Mabbett was a Quaker and is so designated when, with another Quaker, Stephen Hicks, he witnessed the will of Christopher Devill, of Crum Elbow Precinct, Dutchess County, on 17 October 1759. In the post-Revolutionary War period, Samuel Mabbit, a Quaker, affirmed the truth of depositions by Joseph Ford, John Trevor, and Stephen Badgley concerning the Loyalist, Thomas Barker, formerly of Charlotte Precinct.[5] Joseph Mabbett, like his father, was doubtless a member of the Society of Friends, as were many of Joseph's customers.

Following is a list of Joseph Mabbett's customers, together with their purchases (indicated by "Dr.") and their credits ("Cr."). "Answerd" denotes another person responsible for debts incurred. In parentheses is given the page number on which the particular account was kept. Appended in the Notes is additional information about some of the customers.

she married Solomon Howland (see) Howland genealogy:- also Quaker records, Dut Co. N.Y. children of Pontius + Content (Palmer) Wooley found in his will-1814, Clinton, Dut Co. N.Y. where he died, no other record of these children found or where Pontius married or where born; the name Pontius being first recorded as Pontius Stelle then Pontius Wooley 1738
then Pontius Wooley 1763.

How the name Pontius Wooley came into the family has been one, many genealogists & others have wondered about, the one logical reason is the following but no proof to back up the opinion of many who helped on this problem, first - the name Pontius appears in the Stelle family, and as records show,

Elizabeth Woolley, daughter of Edward & Lydia (Allen) Woolley married, Gabriel Stelle, son of Pontius Stelle;- Monmouth Co. N.J. then it was suggested that a Peter Wooley born abt 1700 son of William and Ann (West) Woolley, Monmouth Co. N.J. was the father of Peter 1732;- only one mention in Stillwells Vol 5 of Monmouth Co. N.J. of this Peter son of Wm & Ann (West) Woolley and that is "he had accounts in the old Holmes Book, which book had accts as early as 1730;" where he was between

RST STANFORD (BAPTIST) CHURCH AT NGALL, DUTCHESS CO., NEW YORK.

CONTRIBUTED BY EVELYN BRIGGS BALDWIN.

est records of this Church are dated from Great Nine arlotte Precinct, N. Y. Its first members appear to ted from Massachusetts, and were organized into a 15, 1759, in Dutchess County, by covenanting toppointing Ephraim Bullock and Comer Bullock to gospel and administer the ordinances among them.
ing the members had the assistance of Elder Jabez lder Robert Wheaton, who were elders of the First ch in the town of Swansea, Mass.

ly twenty years harmony prevailed in the church, dissension arose concerning the singing of Watt's erly belong.

ner Bullock continued to be the pastor of the church
It is not recorded that he ever received a penny as a lid, indeed, on one occasion receive a contribution, ing was called "an hireling," whereupon the church ed that he had a perfect right to receive any con-people were disposed to make him. During his eral branches were established, some of which after-ed into independent Baptist churches, viz.: Kinder-o, Noble, Dover, West Branch, South-West Branch

In 1865 the latter tendered his resignation and the following year Elder E. C. Ambler became pastor of the church. In 1867 a survey was made for the Dutchess and Columbia Railroad. This passed through the church building which had to be removed to give passage to the railroad. Damages were awarded and the present house of worship was then erected about a quarter of a mile south of the other at a cost of $12,000.

ABRAHAM BECKER.

June 8, 1775.

This may certify, to all people whom it may concern, that I, the subscriber, am willing to do what is just and right to secure the privileges of America, both civil and sacred, and to follow the advice of our reverend Congress, so far as they do the word of God and the example of Jesus Christ; and I hope in the grace of God, no more will be required. As witness my hand;

JOHN GARNSEY.

The following persons (three Tories) have neglected to sign the Association: Joel Harvey, Jun., Philip Rowe; John Garnsey has signed the paper annexed. ROSWELL HOPKINS, Amenia, July 12, 1775.

Gentlemen: Agreeable to your request, I have procured the persons within mentioned to subscribe the Association, together with Mr. Samuel King and Mr. Silas Marsh, all in Amenia Precinct, in Dutchess County. The two lists of Mr. Marsh and this have four hundred and twenty signers, and six have delayed or refused. I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c.,

ROSWELL HOPKINS.

Fishkill, August 23, 1775.

Sir:—Enclosed is the return of the persons who have signed the Association, and of those who have refused. In the latter you find many erasures, occasioned by their signing afterwards. This affair has been delayed thus long, on account of pursuing lenient measures.

I am, by order of the Committee, your most obedient servant,
DIRCK G. BRINCKERHOFF, Chairman.

Southworth. Cornelius was b. 17 March 1752.[29] Cornelius Hait (sic) was assessed in Beekman in Oct. 1799 on a house and land valued at $187 and he had personal property worth $40. He paid a tax of $22. [See Rombout deeds 372, 413, 414, Mortgages 438, 463 and estates 109-110]. Cornelius was mentioned in the will of John Southworth of Brighton, Monroe Co., NY dated 20 Nov. 1832. [MonCW 1833-38].

Cynthia Haight died 11 Dec. 1865, age 59 years and was buried in the Fishkill Rural Cemetery, Town of Fishkill, DC. [OGDC 118].

Daniel Haight was father-in-law to Stephen Nelson of Philipstown, Putnam Co., NY who wrote his will 28 February 1815, proved 9 November 1835. Daniel Haight was named an executor in the will. Nelson named Mary his wife, and brothers Isaac and Jacob Nelson. [PCW C:198].

Daniel J. Haight, son of John B. Haight of Westchester Co., NY was placed under the guardianship of James McCord, his maternal uncle, 2 May 1832. [WestCW LtrGdn C:135].

Daniel Hayt (sic) died 4 Sept. 1842, age 89 years at Philipstown, Putnam Co., NY.[30]

DANIEL HAIGHT married 30 May 1785 at Bangall Martha Chesman. [BBCh].

Daniel Haight of Washington married Miss Catherine Talman 20 Feb. 1817. [MDDC 49].

Daniel Haight, born 1732, died 4 Sept. 1812 has DAR for NY service. He was married to Martha Fowler.

Daniel Haight died 28 Feb. 1861, age 83-11-22 and was buried in the Friend's Ground at Stanfordville, Town of Stanford, DC. Others in this ground included Leonard, Henry and Jacob Haight, all born prior to 1800. [OGDC 339].

David Haight, born 3rd of 7th month 1804 married 9th 1st month 1828 to Sarah H. Barker who was born 12th of 9th month 1800. See NYS DAR Bible 39:135 for a record of their family.

David Haight of Lockport, Niagara Co., NY wrote his will 24 September 1827 and it was proved 9 November 1827. He named his wife Eliza and children: Jane Haight, Franklin Haight and Charles Henry Haight. Morris H. Tucker, Hiram Gardner and his wife were appointed executors. Alzon T. Prentiss, Stephen R. Bond and Lloid Smith were witnesses. [NiagCW I:29].

Deborah Haight, b. 6 Oct. 1803, married Benjamin S. Wilbur and she died 7 May 1872. She was buried in the Pine Plains Cemetery in Town of Pine Plains, DC. [OGDC 202].

EBENEZER HAIGHT, Vaniah Woolley and Stephen Germond were in a partnership together in Washington and dissolved it in May 1800. Haight was to carry on the business. [PJ 6 May 1800].

1. BENJAMIN[2] HAMILTON, (William[1]), was born at North Kingston, RI ca. 1701 and was most likely the man who had children bp. at Redding, CT. He was possibly the Benjamin Hamilton who was a Taxpayer in Kent CT in 1744 and assessed at £43/0/0. We believe he came to Beekman where a man of this name was taxed from 1756 through 1761 and assessed at £1. He was involved in several legal actions: Bartholomew Noxon of Beekman sued him in 1757. Joshua Hall sued him in DC and was awarded £10. [CP May & Oct. 1757, March 1759 Writs]. William Hamilton[2] and Benjamin Hamilton were tried in the same court. [CP May 1758]. He was on a legal document with John Paddock in 1753 but no further record after 1761 tax roll.

14. REUBEN^5 HEAD, (?George^4, Henry^{3-2-1}), was born ca. 1755-74, per census, and m. 1781, probably in Dutchess Co., as her 2nd Eunice, b. 19 April 1760, dau. of Jonathan and Mary (Soper) Lapham.[27] Howland Soule had m. Eunice Lapham as her 1st. Reuben Head, miller,[28] bought 100 acres of land in Stanford, DC from James Tallmadge and Anna 27 March 1797 for £880. The land was in lot 20 and contained a farm and mill and bounded Asa Allen and Jonah Talmage (sic). [D 15:512]. He was not listed in NYS in 1790[29] but was in Town of Stanford, DC in 1800 at 3-1-0-1-0 and 1-0-1-1-0 between Thomas Duncan and John Osborn. The only Reuben Head we have found in 1810 was in Bradford, Essex Co., MA, page 128 of the roll. A Reuben Head was in the City of Albany, NY in the 4th Ward in 1830, and a Reuben Head was in Lawrenceville, Tioga C., PA in 1830, page 58 of the roll. A Britton Head was in the same county, page 57. A George Head was in Richmond Town, same County, p. 32 of the roll. We have found nothing else we can prove about this man.

15. HENRY G.^{6} HEAD, (Henry^5, ?Joseph^4, Henry^{3-2-1}), was born ca. 1790 and married Elizabeth Wilbur b. ca. 1791. He was in Beekman in 1820 at 2-0-0-1-0 and 1-0-1-0-1. On 2 Oct. 1820 Henry Head of Dover and Henry G. Head and Betty of Beekman mortgaged 10 acres 1 rood and 38 perches of land on the east side of Chestnut Ridge, plus other lands in Washington Town. The mortgage was for $117.22 and was to Vaniah Woolley and John S. Tripp. On 28 Aug. 1821 a deed for these properties was recorded in name of Henry and Freelove Head and Henry G. and Betty of Beekman, the cost $300. [M 2741, D 28:347]. He was in Duanesburgh in 1830 through 1845 and probably died before 1855. He was mentioned in the will of Britton Tallman and administered the estate of his brother Elias Head in 1833. His father seems to have lived with him in his later years.

Children:
i. Joseph D., b. ca. 1813; prob. d. unm.
ii. John W., b. 25 Dec. 1819; m. Elizabeth E. who was b. 20 April 1820.
iii. Jane, b. ca. 1820; m. Silas Marsh.
iv. Freelove, b. ca. 1820; m. John Clement. The Clements & Heads moved to Sauk county WI in mid 1850's.

[1] Mary Craddock, from Holdridge Genealogy, Ken Holdridge web page.

She had ten children by Sabin. There was a Thomas Holdridge on the Beekman tax list from 1767 to 1778 (Pawling) and Mary Holdridge who joined the Dover Baptist Church on 12 May 1764 and a Martha Holdridge who m. Barnabas Paine, who were probably children of the first marriage and brought up by Sabin. Mary Burtch died after 1790.

Children:

- i. Mary, b. ca. 1740. Mary Holdridge was admitted to the Dover 1st Baptist Church 12 May 1765. The minutes of the Dover Church included the following: "The Church having Opportunity, Laboured with Sister Holdridge to Convince her of the inconsistency of her Grievance in the Complaint she brought against Elder Dakin, in page 24: but her mind remaining unfruitful therein: wherefore the Church referred it for further Consideration." [6 June 1769]. "Twas a vote of the Church that a letter be sent to desire Mary Holdridge to come and answer to the Church for her complaint heretofore made in this Church against Elder Dakin for Assembling with David Wilcox on the Sabbath for Worship." [2 July 1772].
- ii. Martha; m. 15 April 15 1760 Barnabas Paine. She d. 9 Dec. 1775. They had two daus. (at least):[2]
    - i. Marcia Paine, b. 1767; m. Jonah Moore.
    - ii. Mary Paine, b. 1771; m. Ebenezer Owen.
- 5. iii. Felix, b. ca. 1742; m. Mary ___.
- 6. iv. Thomas, b. 1 Jan. 1744; m. Anna ?Hunt.

5. FELIX[5] HOLDRIDGE, (Thomas[4], William[3-2-1]), was born ca. 1742, probably near Stonington, CT and died 7 March 1803. He married Mary ___ who died 23 Nov 1834 at Truxton, Cortland Co., NY. There are no records for him in Dutchess County but he was in Saratoga Town, Albany Co., NY in 1790 at 1-2-3 between James Masters and Wright Penier[3]

Children:

- 7. i. Thomas, b. 19 Nov. 1763; m. Abigail Price.
- ii. ?Daniel. A man of this name age 16-26 was in Plainfield Town, Otsego Co. in 1800. Both Felix and presumed brother Thomas named sons Daniel
- iii. ?Felix . A Felix Holdridge was in Northampton Town, Montgomery Co., NY in 1800 at 1-0-1-0-0 and 1-0-2-0-0 between Jeremiah Cole and John North.

6. THOMAS^5 HOLDRIDGE, (Thomas^4, William^{3-2-1}), was born 1 Jan. 1744 and married Anna ___ who was born 13 March 1737 and died 3 April 1798. She was probably dau. of William and Abigail Hunt of Dover.[4] Thomas Holdridge was a Merritt store customer 1767-1775 and dealt on the accounts of Jeremiah Sabin Jr., William Pearce and Stephen Hunt. Sarah Hunt traded on his account. [DCSB II:A-E]. On 1 Jan. 1767 he bought many items, including: an iron pot, a small kettle, 2 quarts of rum, 4 lb. sugar, tea, raisins, Indego, and ½ paper of pins. On 22 July 1767 he bought coffee, sugar, etc. Sarah Hunt charged sundries to his account on 22 Aug. 1767. He paid his account with 5 lbs, of butter, 5s/8p and with £3/13 cash on 18th Dec. He carried a balance of £1/11/3 to the next year's ledger, page 99. On 18 Feb. 1772 he bought ½ barrel of fish, on the 28 th he bought shoe buckles and on 9 June he had an order on Isaiah Burtch. He paid by carrying 12 bushels of wheat to the river from Nehemiah's. On 2 Dec. he paid with 5 hogs, total weight 713 pounds @38/ or £13/10/11½ [DCSB II:A:136, D:199]. Thomas Holdridge of Pawling reported that one of his horses was stolen on the 3rd. [NYP 8 Oct. 1778].

Thomas Holdridge was taxed in Beekman from 1767 to 1778 in Pawling, and was assessed at £1 up to 1774, then in Pawling at £2 in June 1775 and again at £1 in both 1778 and 1779. He was probably in Schaghticoke Town, Albany Co., NY in 1790 at 3-4-4 between Nicholas Grosbeck and Joseph Sweet. He is alleged to be the man in Burlington, Otsego Co, NY by 1796 where a Thomas Holdridge was in 1800 at 0-0-3-0-1 and 0-2-0-0-1 between John Jackson and Jonathan Sweet.[5] He has DAR and is credited with service in the 14th Albany Co. Richard Holdridge of Hillsdale had dau. Mary b. 15 Dec. 1792. [IGI]. Richard Holdridge was on a roll of Associated Exempts at Claverack, Columbia Co., NY 12 Aug. 1778. A number of other men who were listed had previously lived in Beekman. He was on a roll of Associated Exempts from Albany Co. 28 July 1778. [GCP #1646, 1889]. Richard Holdridge was assessed in Kings District on Land 1779. He was in Canaan, Columbia Co., NY in 1800.

Roswell Holdridge was a witness to the will of Waterman Lippett of Chatham, Col. Co., which was written 17 April 1809. Roswell Holdridge was in Greenbush, Rensselaer Co., NY in 1800 at 1-0-1-1-0 and 2-1-0-1-1. He was second on the list; the first name was illegible and the man after him on the list was John Ryley. Roswell Holdridge was in Chatham Town, Columbia Co., NY in 1810 at 2-1-0-1-0 and 1-3-0-1-0. (Alpha listing).

Russell (sic) Holdridge died 8 May 1852 age 79 years, 3 months and 28 days and was buried in the Old Chatham Cemetery, Columbia Co., NY. His wife Elizabeth died 5 Dec. 1852 age 81-2-17. They had a dau. Amanda, wife of Abraham V. Adriance, who died 11 Nov. 1829 age 26-8-3 and a probable son Ashley who died 11 July 1822, age 26 and they were buried with parents. (Abraham V. Adriance {b. 8 July 1804, bp. Nassau, Rensselaer Co., NY}, was almost certainly the son of Theodorus Adriance who was born in Beekman, son of Elbert and Hannah (Platt) Adriance. Theodorus Adriance married Jane, dau. of Abraham Vosburgh who wrote his will at Canaan, Col. Co., NY 1807.)

Tamar Holdridge m. John Adsit Jr. [DAR]. They were of Columbia Co., NY.

Thomas, supposed son of Christopher Holdridge, married Hannah, daughter of Oliver Evans. Oliver Evans was from Pawling in the Beekman Patent but removed to Columbia County, NY before his daughters married. Hannah was born 9 April 1785 and died 19 March 1869. Thomas Holdridge was born 2 July 1782, allegedly in Hartland, VT, and they married 7 December 1802. His Bible record calls him Thomas Jun.[18]

Thomas Holdridge, age 80 and his wife Hannah, age 75, were on the 1860 census for Westford Township, Otsego Co., NY. Thomas Holdridge died 21 November 1860, age 78 and his widow died 19 March 1867 age 82 years.

On 1 May 1737 Abraham Lockwood had settled on farm #3 of lot 4 which consisted of 207 acres in the Pawling area of the Patent, on the west side of Purgatory Hill. The land was surveyed 15 Nov. 1740 and first rents were due 1 May 1743. Joseph Hally (sic) took over Lockwood's lease ca. 1744 but by 1747 Robert Caswell and Elisha West were on the farm: "Robert Caswell, lot 4. (From folio 'B' 11). His old lease bears date May the 1st 1757. Lives therein are said Robert Caswell and sons Robert & John. This place Caswell purchased from Joseph Holly [Holloway] who bought it off Abraham Lockwood."[11]

Joseph Holloway sued John Hamblin in May 1751 Court of Common Pleas for £63/18 in "good merchantible barr iron at money priced as it was sold at their forge for Old Tenor Money." [AD 2349].

We have not found any death records or burial for Joseph Holloway but suspect he died 1770.

[12] Lydia is a name given to a sister to William^3 Soule, (George$^{2-1}$). Lydia^3 Soule married William Brownell and her nephews, sons of George Brownell, came to Beekman. See Brownell family in SBP II:797-817 and SBP V:914-916.

[13] See Hunt family this volume.

[14] Ealce or Alice, was the name of a daughter of William^3 Soule, a sister to the wife of Joseph Holway. Elsie Holloway remained a legend in the Stephens family for many years. The following was spoken at a reunion 23 Aug. 1900: "Our great grand-mother, Elsa Holloway of what I have learned of her through grandfather (Holloway 1st), was a woman of no common mold. She was a Quakeress (The Holloway descendants all claim Quaker heritage but they were not Quakers in Beekman. They were Baptists, if anything-FJD), possessing that mild manner and truthfulness, characteristic of that sect. And such was the inpress that she made on her children that every branch of the family must have a Holloway to keep the name in loving remembrance. My grand-father (Holloway Stephens 1st) never spoke to me about his mother, ..etc." The speech was written by Holloway Stephens 3rd and read by his son William Stephens.

[15] Eliphalet Stephens was quite a character. He was not too popular in Pawling, as evidenced by court records: "The charge was that "Eliphalet Stephens being a man that lives in contempt of all authority and a disturber of the peace and that he has threatened the life of John Akin Esq. and that the said John Akin is afraid of his lifes being taken away by the said Eliphalet Stephens, and farther said Stephens threatens if said Akin offers to bring him to Justice he will kill him." Stephens left soon after and went to Wyoming Valley in CT (PA now). See John Steevens of Guilford, (CT), Claude Willis Barlow.

Also named: Abraham Hasbrouck and Jeremiah Teerpenning. Witnesses: John Velie, William Velie and Peter R. Decker. [UCW F:220]. He died 15 Oct. 1825, age 85-6- 15 and his wife Margaret died 20 Sept. 1841, age 86-0-25 and they were buried in the Port Ewen Cemetery, Town of Esopus, Ulster Co., NY. He has DAR.

ix. Catrina, bp. 7 Aug. 1743 with Sp. Petrus Rykman and Catrina Kierstede. [KB 5569].

4. JOHN[5] HOTALING, (Wilhelmus[4], Jan Willemse[3], Willem Jansen[2], Jan Willemse[1]), was baptized 16 April 1721 in Kingston with Sp. Juriaan Tappen and Arlaantjen Tappen. [KB 2870]. He married at Kingston 11 June 1743 Gertrude, daughter of Willem and Barbara (Schoonmaker) Ploeg and the church record noted they were both born and lived under the jurisdiction of Kingston. [KM 986]. She was bp. 9 December 1722. [KB 3065]. He was possibly the Johannis Hoghtaling taxed in Rombout from 1774-1779. On 22 May 1772 Johannis Hogteeling of Dutchess County gave a mortgage of £89/0/3 to Leonard Van Kleeck on a parcel of 73 ½ acres. On 18 April 1786 Johannes Houghtaling, yeoman of Rombout and Geertruyd, his wife, sold this land to John Sleight of Rombout for £350. The deed gives the chain of title on the land. [M 3:181, D 9:361]. He was a miller, a farmer and a merchant, per notes at AML.

Johannes Hotaling was an insolvent in DC and John Hotaling Jr. and Bernardus Swartwout were petitioners. 16 April 1787. Abraham Ferdon evidently joined in the action and was noted in a newspaper ad.[9] [CJ & PA 9 May 1787]. Cornelius Masten loaned Johannis Hotaling £60 on 6 April 1762 and when it wasn't paid Masten retained George Clinton as his attorney to collect the debt in the Court of Common Pleas in 1770. Masten sued Johannes Hotaling and Wilhelmus Ploeg. [CP 2 Oct. 1770, AD #5084]. John Hotaling was indicted by the King in 1762 and was fined £19/9/6. [GS 18 May, 19 Oct. 1762]. Daniel Freer Jr. sued him and a trial was held and Jeremiah and Rachel DuBois were witnesses for the defendant. Freer was awarded £26 and 6p costs. [CP 16 May 1769]. John Hotaling assaulted Constantine and Jacob Gulnac[10] and he was indicted. [GS May 1780]. He was sued in the Court of Common Pleas 2 Oct. 1770 by Abel and Pontius Woolley and Robert Clarke.

[9] Swartwout and Ferdon were sons-in-law.

Du Bois

John Hotaling the 1st was in Beekman in 1790 at 2-1-2 between Benjamin DuBois and Jacob Gulneck. In 1800 he was listed as John Hotaling Sr. with 0-0-1-0-1 and 0-1-0-0-1 between John Hotaling Jr. and Benjamin DuBois. Letters of Administration were granted to John H. Houghtaling, eldest son of Johannis Houghtaling, farmer of Beekman, dec'd, 20 Sept. 1802. He has DAR for service as a Private in the Revolution.

THE HOWARD FAMILY

The Howard family arrived in Dutchess County around 1748 and remained through the end of the century and beyond. The emigrant was Edward Howard Effingham, born 1628 who married 7 March 1661 at Cambridge, Middlesex Co., MA, Esther Hannah Hawkins, born 20 Nov. 1640, dau. of Thomas and Hannah Hawkins of Boston, MA. He died after 1662, probably in England.

Children:

1. i. Matthew, b. 15 June 1662; m. Mary Case.

1. MATTHEW^2 HOWARD, (Edward^1), was born 15 June 1662 in Boston, MA and married ca. 1687/8 to Mary, born ca. 1662, daughter of James and Anne (Chamberlain) Case. He died after 1740 near Dartmouth.

Children:

- i. Esther, b. ca. 1685 at Little Compton. She probably married Thomas Hammond 31 Jan. 1719/20 at Tiverton.
- 2. ii. Edward, b. ca. 1688; m. Sarah ___.
- 3. iii. William, b. ca. 1690; m. 1st Mary Parker, 2nd Mary Tallman.
- iv. Matthew, b. ca. 1692; m. Phebe Burgess 17 Nov. 1726, both of Dartmouth. They apparently moved to Rochester where they lived until at least 1773 when he sold land to son Abner. They had children:
  - i. Sarah, b. 21 Feb. 1727/8.
  - ii. Elizabeth, b. 22 May 1731.
  - iii. Mary, b. 21 April 1735.
  - iv. Abner; from deed.

2. EDWARD^3 HOWARD, (Matthew^2, Edward^1), was born ca. 1688 and married Sarah ___. Edward Howard lived in Dartmouth, then Newport, then back to Dartmouth, then to Tiverton, RI, then to Little Compton, RI and then to Crum Elbow (sic).[1] He was probably the man who sold land to William Hall 26 Aug. 1746. The land was part of his homestead farm which was part of the third lot of the six-score acre lots laid out between the Puncateest outlet and the Old Dartmouth line. Hall sold the land 15 July 1747.[2]

He evidently left RI soon after for he was listed on a deed in Dutchess County dated 28 March 1748: "Edward Howard, late of Tiverton, in County of Bristol, New England, shipwright, but now resident of place called by ye Indian name 'pakipset' in Crown Elbow precinct, Duckes County in the government of New York, in consideration of 200 pounds "in good bills of Publik Credit old tenor" conveys to Caleb Tripp of Dartmouth, cordwainer, lands in Dartmouth, bounded northerly by lands now belonging to Joseph Soule, easterly by the river or salt water, and all other ways by lands and possession of Ichabod Eddy, which he bought of Timothy Soule," etc.

Edward Howard was taxed in Poughkeepsie Precinct, DC from June 1747 through June 1748 and in Beekman and Pawling from Feb. 1753[3] through June 1772. He was assessed in Beekman Precinct in Feb. 1753 at £5, in June 1758 at £4, in June 1760 at £5, in June 1763 at £4, and in June 1767 at £3. He was then assessed in Pawling Precinct in June 1770 at £3. Edward Howard was a Merritt store customer 1767-75 and his dau. Ruth, his son Edward, Patience Akin and Elisha Allen traded with him. [DCSB II:A-E].

Children:

- i. Ruth, b. 15 June 1722. She was noted on her father's Merritt store account in 1771 and 1775
- 4. ii. Edward, b. 22 Dec. 1724; m. Phebe Hart.
- iii. Patience, b. 28 Jan 1726/27; m. James Akin.[4] She was still alive in 1811 when her husband made his will.
- iv. Stephen, b. 4 Feb. 1731/32; m. Patience ___.
- v. ?Cynthia.[5]
- vi. ?Benjamin. Benjamin Howard was brought before the ConC Board 4 March 1777 and charged with altering the Currency of the State. James Kent was charged with the same. A number of bills they were supposed to have altered were also presented to the Board, as well as a gun belonging to Howard. He appeared at the Board meeting held Saturday 8 March 1777: "Benjamin Howard being Examined, Saith that he did confess to the Court of Enquiry that he had split one Bill, but does not remember that he had confessed that he had passed it, That he was induced to make this Confession thro' fear, for he now denies that he ever split the Bills, -- Does not admit that hand writing on the paper, pasted on these Bills to be his, but thinks it possibly it may be[.]" [ConC 178, 187].
- vii. ?Phebe; Phebe Howard m. 2 Oct. 1765 Philip Pine at Rombout. [RPCh]. He d. there 1818 and she died 19 Jan. or June 1813, age 66, born 1746-7, at Deposit, NY. [Rec. 1938:381].

3. WILLIAM^3 HOWARD, (Mathew^2, Edward^1), was born ca. 1690 and married 1st Mary Parker at Rochester 14 Nov. 1723. He married 2^{d} 26 September 1739 at same Mary Tallman.[6] He probably died 6 Feb. 1790 at Sturbridge, Worchester Co., MA.

In 1790 Jonathan Wood was head of a household in Washington, Dutchess County, with two males 16 and over, three males under 16, and two females.[15] In 1800 he was head of a household there with two males 16–26, one male 45 and over, one female 0–10, and two females 16–26.[16] The absence of a female 45 and over in this and subsequent censuses suggests that Lydia (Irish) Wood had died by 1800. In 1810 "Jon Wood" was head of a household in Washington, Dutchess County, with one male 10–16, one male 45 and over, and one female 16–26.[17] And in 1820, the year of his death, Jonathan Wood was head of a household there with one male 45 and over, one female 0–10, and one female 45 and over.[18]

Jonathan⁵ Wood died in Dutchess County in 1820. His will, dated at Washington 18 April 1820, proved 10 October 1820,[19] lists all seven children mentioned in the family Bible record cited above.

> I give an[d] bequeath to my sons Sanford Wood, Edward Wood, Jacob Wood & James Wood each one dollar to be paid out of my estate, Also to my son Elisha Wood I give and bequeath to him all my wearing apparel and my Oil Stone also to my Grand-Children, they being children of my son John Wood, deceased Viz - Godfrey Wood, Samuel Wood, Mathilda Wood, Cleantheus Wood, Calvin Wood and Loisa Wood one dollar to each and every of them, all which said several legacies or sums of money I will and order shall be paid to the said respective legates within one year after my demise - and lastly as to all the rest residue and remainder of my personal estate goods and chattel and be they of what kind and nature soever and give and bequeath the same to my Daughter Sarah Wood . . . And I her[e]by appoint Sarah Wood Executrix, Joshua Hart and Vaniah Woolley Executors of this my last will and testament.

Children of Jonathan and Lydia (Irish) Wood, born probably in New York:

i. SANFORD⁶ WOOD, b. ca. 1769. Based on the federal census, he evidently married and had children. In 1800 he was head of a household in Milton, Saratoga Co., N.Y.[20] In 1820 he was head of a household in Halfmoon, Saratoga Co.[21] In 1830 he was head of a household in Bethany, Genesee Co., N.Y.[22] In 1850 Sanford Wood, age 80, b. N.Y., was living in the poorhouse at Bethany.[23]

She was born in Little Compton 15 May 1735, the dau. of Richard and Mary (Taber) Hart. He was taxed in Beekman and Pawling from Feb. 1753 through 1778, (as Edward Howard Jr. from 1770 to 1778). Edward Howard Jr. was assessed in Beekman Precinct in Feb. 1753 and Feb 1754 at £1, in June 1758 and 1760 at £2, in June 1763 and June 1767 at £3. Edward Howard Jr. was assessed in the Pawling Precinct in June 1770 and June 1775 at £4 and in June 1778 and June 1779 at £6.

He was in Pawling in 1790 at 2-2-4 between Stephen Howard and William Lewis. He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on personal property worth $66 and he owed a tax of 6 cents. He was listed in Pawling in 1800 as Edward Sr. at 0-0-0-1-1 and 0-1-0-0-1 between Stephen Howard and Wright Birdsall.

In Jan. 1761 he was on a farm of 138 acres in lot 33 of the Oblong, DC with a quit-rent of £6/3/1. Others in this lot were Abraham Thomas, John Wickham, Phineas Chase and Ephraim Allen. He was mentioned in a mortgage of 31 March 1770 that involved land in lot 33 of the Oblong. [M 2:271].

Edward Howard Jr. was a Merritt store customer 1767-72 and he dealt on the accounts of Abraham Thomas, Moses Trim and Samuel Clarke. His unnamed dau. and his son Stephen traded on his account. [DCSB II:A-D]. The minutes of the Oblong meeting held 2nd month 1770 include: "The Woman Friends from their meeting intimated that Phebe Howard the wife of Edward Howard Jr. is Desirous with one of her children to be admitted unto Society, etc." [FHL MF 0017315, p. 280].

Edward Howard was taken prisoner by Capt. William Calkins, by order of Col. Andrew Morehouse, and brought before the ConC Board 14 May 1777. Calkins was paid £32/18/7½ by the Board for "Scouring the Woods & apprehending a Number of prisoners brought here by him." The next day the Board ordered Howard and about twenty other men to he confined on the Fleet Prison in Esopus Harbor at Kingston. 7. MATTHEW^{4} HOWARD, (William^{3}, Matthew^{2}, Edward^{1}), was born 30 April 1740 at Dartmouth and came to Beekman Patent with his father. Matthew Howard, fuller, was taxed in Nine Partners in June 1763. Matthew Howard, fuller, was assessed in Beekman Precinct in June 1767 and June 1770 at £1. He was a customer at the Schenck store in Charlotte Precinct. He charged a tea kettle (15s/6p) and a pound of sugar (8s) 31 Dec. 1764 and paid by 16 bushels of wheat.

Rent records for his farm in the Clove, Beekman Patent follow: Mathew Howard paid 11 bushels 25 Jan. 1774 and 10¾ bushels 28 Dec. 1774 per "Account of wheat received from my tenants in Dutchess County."[24]

"William (Mathew in super script) Howard. He possesseth the farm which was formerly leased to Jonathan Dennis which lease bears the date the 1st of May 1763. Lives are said Dennis, Mary his wife and Reuben his son. Farm contains 127 acres rents of 13 bushels, 2 fowls.

"I suppose the rent was settled by Dennis till the 1st of May 1773? By wheat pd. by Mathew Howard 11 bus at 7/ 25 Jan. 1774. See some agreement with Mathew Howard in day book the 22 Dec. 1773 where he has leave to sell to John Rider Jr. NB there was 20 acres taken from this farm added to the other farm of Dennis, in consideration of which there was 2 bushels per annum deducted from the rent of this farm so that the rent is now 11 bushels, 2 fowls. Mathew Howard cleared this place to 1 May 1774."

He removed to Hoosick about 1774 and was assessed £70 on land there in March 1779. He was elected to the Committee of Correspondence for Schaghticoke District, Albany Co., NY 28 May 1776 and was a material witness against Simon Frazer 3 July 1778. [AConC]. He was probably the man on the rolls of 14th Regiment of Albany Co. Militia. [NYR 126]. He became a Loyalist and several records have survived for him:

Matthew Howard, Pitts Town, Albany Co., NY. "Was asked to join rebels, but refused; in 1777 joined Army at Skeensborough as Ensign (General Burgoyne's Campaign). After defeat at Bennington, was listed as killed or captured; because of this, his post was taken by another before he returned to Army. Then ordered to Pitts Town, was taken and imprisoned 90 days. Seeking to reach Canada, he agreed to assist a Dr. Smith and three others to go with him; often helped in recruiting parties. Memorial, now of St. Therese, Canada, 1 March 1786. Claim: Costs of imprisonment in Albany and Bennington Gaols; fines paid to rebels, cattle, etc."[25] "He settled afterwards at Prescott, Canada. He claimed a loss of £57 sterling, a sum which he requested as compensation for his imprisonment, and was awarded £40." [LAR].

"Matthew Howard, Loyalist from Pittston, NY, a village near Hoosic Falls and close to the border of Vermont. He rescued Dr. George Smyth from gaol in Hoosic Falls and piloted him to St. John's in June 1781. He led the raiding party

On 28 February 1805, Howard petitioned for a patent to lots 19 and 20, 2nd concession in Elizabethtown where he had been located since 1787. The patents were promised him at that time.[35]

He wrote his will 1819 in Elizabethtown.

"In the Name of God Amen, I Matthew Howard Esquire of the Township of Elizabethtown in the County of Leeds and Province of Upper Canada, being of sound mind and memory, do this eighteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following (that is to say) firstly I give bequeath and devise to my beloved wife the front part of Lots Number twenty one and twenty two in the third Concession of Elizabethtown aforesaid, during her natural life, bounded as follows; Commencing where a stone monument is placed; at the side of the now traveling road and at the west side of the same about four rods southerly from a small bridge across a Creek running through said farm; from thence westerly or parallel with the Concessions line until it extends to the lands now in the possession of; and belonging to Peter Howard Containing all the Lands belonging to the aforesaid farm Southerly of the said line, excepting a piece in front now occupied by Peter Howard, to his own use and benefit for her support and maintenance during her natural life, subject to the control of my Executors in any bargain and sale of my personal property to her use & benefit, comfortable and decent maintenance and support; and the conducting and the managing of the farm to the best advantage for the purposes aforesaid so that out of all the profits arising from the same there shall at all times there shall be a sufficiency appropriate by my Executors for her support as aforesaid.

Secondly; I give bequeath and devise to my fourth Son Peter Howard his heirs and assigns forever all that tract of land in front of the home farm aforesaid now with in inclosure commencing at the North East angle of said tract as the fence now stands; thence westerly along the fence on the North West side of the tract to a side line run by Robert McLean Deputy Surveyor at the center of lot number twenty two of the said Third Concession.

8. STEPHEN^{5} HOWARD, (Edward$^{4-3}$, Matthew^{2}, Edward^{1}), was born 26 May 1753 and married Theodosia Totten.[39] He was admitted into the Oblong Meeting at his mother's request 15th 3rd month 1770.[40] He was a Merritt store customer 1767-1775 and probably later. Theodosia Howard had a certificate of removal from the Purchase Meeting to Oblong 11 April 1782.

The minutes of the Oblong Meeting held 18th 2nd month 1773 noted that Stephen Howard gave an acknowledgment for misconduct. The minutes of the meeting held 16th 2nd month 1775 include: "A complaint came to this meeting by way of last Preparative Meeting against Stephen Howard for Being too familiar with Else Case which being manifest by her laying a child to him. Therefore this meeting appoints Edward Shove and Abner Hoag to Visit him on that account and make report of their Service to Next Meeting." The members reported at the next meeting that they had visited Howard but had received no satisfaction, "which it appears he has Committed the sin of fornication with Else Case" and the Meeting testified against him and disowned him until he gave satisfaction. The testification was read at the meeting held at Oblong 20th 4th month 1775.[41] Stephen Howard was reinstated at the Oblong Meeting 15 July 1822. He was charged with Bastardy in 1775 (same issue). [GS 16 May 1775].

Stephen Howard, son of Edward Howard, was a Pilot for a Loyalist party that met at the haystack in the meadow of Elkanah Briggs' farm in Pawling. Benjamin Buffington gave testimony to this event 15 May 1777 and noted that Stephen's father Edward was then in jail. [ConC 289]. He evidently was not too serious about his loyalty to the King; Stephen Howard was paid $2.71 on 1 March 1781 for carting flour 25 miles for the War effort.[42] His estate was taxed in Pawling in 1777 and 1778, probably because of his suspected Loyalism. He was assessed at £1.

He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on a house and farm valued at $2,482.50 and personal property worth $406. He owed a tax of $2.88. He was a customer at the Campbell store in Pawling and Thomas Howard charged to his account in 1799. [DCSB KK:71]. In 1800 he was listed at 0-2-2-0-1 and 0-1-0-0-1 and was between John Thomas and Edward Howard Sr. He was in Pawling in 1810 at 0-0-1-2-1 and 0-1-1-0-1 between David Arnold and Thomas Howard. In 1820 he was still in Pawling at 0-0-0-0-1-1 and 0-1-0-1-0 between Edward Howard 2nd and Anthony Aldridge.

His wife Theodotia "died on Saturday about 10 o'clock in the forenoon July the 18 AD 1818." [PR 45]. No record of his death or burial.

Children:

i. Robert. He died 29 July 1852 at Pawling, age 76-4-26 years and was buried with his brother Edward's family.[43]

ii. Peter.

iii. Thomas, b. ca. 1780; m. Susanna ___. He was probably the man in Pawling in 1810 at 1-0-0-1-0 and 0-1-0-1-0 between Stephen Howard and Anthony Aldridge. In 1850 he was listed in Town of Washington, DC as age 70 and his wife as age 68. He was a farmer and his farm was worth $9,000. John Deal, age 20, born in Ireland, a laborer, lived with them. Susanna Howard took cert. to Nine Partners from Oblong 16 March 1822. [OMM]. Thomas Howard Sr. died 11 May 1870, age 90 years and 1 month in Town of Washington, DC and his presumed wife Susannah Howard died 20 Nov. 1870, age 88 years and 7 months. [NPMM]. Their names were both on one grave-stone in the Friend's Ground at Mechanic, Town of Washington, DC. [OGDC 394]. In the 1850 census she was listed as born RI.

9. MATTHEW[5] HOWARD, (Edward[4-3], Matthew[2], Edward[1]), was born Sept. 1754 and married Eunice Rogers.[46] Matthew Howard, was taxed in Nine Partners from 1778-79. His land was referenced several times in Nine Partners deeds as early as 1785 and in 1797 a deed mentions "Matthew Howard, now William Sealey." A mortgage in 1799 notes that David Bishop was on Howard's farm by that date. [D 9:345, 15:140, M 8:123]. He served in the 4th Dutchess County Regiment of Militia. [NYR 244]. Matthew Howard was a Path Master in Charlotte for district #11 in 1784. In 1786 his farm was noted as: "on the Southeast side of the Great Wappingers Creek near Matthew Howards to Abraham Freligh across the bridge near his mill." This was road district #7 and he was also mentioned in district #28. He was again mentioned in road districts #7 and 28 in 1787 and in district #7 in 1788 and 1789. In 1795 he was the Path Master for district # 38.[47] Mathew Howard had been running the fulling mill in Clinton before 10 Sept. 1796 when Peter C. Brown took it over. [PJ 26 Oct. 1796]. He evidently followed in the trade of his relative of the same name. He was in Clinton Town, DC in 1790 at 1-2-2 between Richard DeCantillon and Jacob Schriver the 1st. In 1800 he was in Galway, Saratoga Co., NY at 2-1-0-0-1 and 1-0-0-1-0 between Abner Mackinburgh and Joab Cornell. He died at Galway before March 1815.

John Howard of Galway, Saratoga Co., NY, with James A. Smith, was granted administration of the estate of Matthew Howard, 14 March 1815. Petition 15 April 1815. Appointed guardian for ch. Jacob and Mary Howard 10 June 1815. Eunice, widow of Matthew petitions for dower 17 June 1815. Measurements for land 8 July 1815 and petition to sell real estate 30 August 1815 [SCW IV:302, 324, 357, 373]. On 23 October 1826 heirs of Matthew Howard, dec'd, late of Galway, sold 10½ acres in Galway to Jeremiah Spaulding of Providence, Saratoga Co.

10. RICHARD^5 HOWARD, (Edward$^{4-3}$, Matthew^2, Edward^1), was born 13 March 1760 and m. Margaret, dau. of William and Sarah (Lewis) Holloway of Pawling. He was dismissed from the Oblong Meeting 16 September 1781 for marrying out of Meeting. Richard Howard was a Duncan store customer ca. 1789-95. [DCSB E:76, 427, H:212]. On 4 July 1792 heirs of Robert G. Livingston confirmed a land sale to Richard Howard. The land was 168½ acres and had been sold 7 Sept. 1784 and was in lot 6 of the patent at the SW corner of William Halloway, bounded Richard Parks and David Hurd. Edward Howard was a witness to the later deed. The compensation for the quitclaim was 10 shillings. On 25 Jan. 1797 Richard Howard and his wife of Pawling, sold 3 roods of land in Pawling to Jarrius Farrington, Physician of Pawling for £400.[49] The land bounded a brook and a road and Farrington gave Howard a mortgage of £300 on 6 Jan. 1797. On 27 Feb. 1797 Richard and Margaret Howard of Pawling sold the 168½ acres to Jacob Parks for £700. On the same date they purchased 139½ acres in Pawling from Joseph Pray and Abigail of Pawling. The deed described Howard as a "drover" and noted the land had been surveyed in 1756 and had been leased by Catharine Pawling to Isaac Sheldon. No consideration was mentioned but they gave Pray a mortgage of £500, dated 8 Feb. 1797 and another of $2,500 to Henry Aster of NYC 9 April 1799. In May 1810 his farm was noted as a boundary to a farm in lots 14 and 15 in Dover. He evidently had bought from Kennedy Edmund, as noted in mortgage of 16 May 1810. In May 1806 a deed for land in Pawling refers to a house "late Richard Howard". On 11 June 1811 Richard Howard and Margaret of Dover gave a mortgage of $1,250 to George Casey and James Grant on two parcels of land in Dover. The first was on 27½ acres and 12 rods on the line of lots 14 and 15 and the second was for 43½ acres of land, the same area that John Basset had bought of John Dutcher. Richard Howard Jr. witnessed this mortgage. The mortgage was renewed for $1,157 on 1 May 1811 for17 ¾ acres and John Bassett and Charlotte took a mortgage of $1.138 on 3 May 1811 for what appears to be the remaining land. On 14 July 1813 Richard Howard and his wife of Dover gave Casey a mortgage of $100 on the west half of a woodlot in Dover. On 20 May 1814 a deed refers to a sale to be held because of a default by Richard Howard and John Basset of Dover on the mortgage given to George

Casey of Aurelius, Cayuga Co., NY and James Grant of Dover. The farm was to be sold 20 June 1814 and Casey had appointed James Ketcham as attorney.[50]

He was a Quaker and was mentioned at several meetings. The minutes of the meeting held at Oblong 15th 10th month 1777 note: "Richard Howard by way of the last Preparative Meeting Requested to come under the Care of friends; David Hoag and Edward Hoag are appointed to visit him on that account & report to next meeting." The next meeting held over any decision on his application but he was admitted 17th 12th month 1777.[51]

The minutes of the meeting held at Oblong 18th day 7th month 1781 include: "A complaint came from Oblong Preparative Meeting against Richard Howard for being too familiar with a woman as appears by her swearing a child upon him as the father of it therefore Joseph Irish and Abner Hoag are to labour with him, etc." The meeting held 19th 9th month 1781 includes: "The Friends appointed to labour with Richard Howard reports as follows: 'We the committee appointed to visit Richard Howard have visited him and find him to be Desirous to make friends Satisfaction for his outgoing and told us he would try and we made inquiry whether he had satisfied the young woman and find she has Took up what he has Ingaged to pay.' Richard Howard Sent to this meeting a paper condemning his familiarity with a young woman to the Degree She Swore a child upon him and keeping company with one not of our Society and Being Married by a priest, which is referred under the care of Benjamin Ferris and Matthew Ferris to next meeting." The meeting held 17th of 10th month 1781 reported that Richard Howard had not made adequate satisfaction and they voted to condemn him and write a testification against him. He was disowned 14th 11th month 1781.[52] Richard Howard was charged with bastardy in 1781, as noted in the Oblong minutes. By Jan. 1782 Beekman Precinct was indemnified and he was discharged. [GS 15 May 1781, 12 Oct. 1781, 1 Jan. 1782].

Richard Howard and Mordicai Thomas posted bonds in £20 each to ensure that Thomas appeared to answer a complaint brought by Abraham Birdsall. [CP 5 July 1793]. William Akin sued Richard Howard and a trial was held. Plaintiff's witnesses were Joseph Pray, Archibald Campbell, Uriah Mitchell, David Duncan, Jonathan Akins and Peter Akins. The jury found for the plaintiff in £15 with 6p costs. [CP 12 Jan. 1798].

Richard Howard of Dover advertised the stud KOULIKHAN at his stable in Dover, a few miles from Quaker Hill, Pawling. $4 the season, 12s the single leap and $8 the insured foal. "KOULIKHAN is full 15 and ½ hands high, strong and bony, a dark bay. His beauty, movement and figure is equal to any horse whatever. no more than 100. He was kept the last season on Quaker Hill at the house of Mr. Hicks."[53] [PJ 26 March 1791].

Richard Howard and William Holloway Junior advertised FIGURE for stud service. "He was a full blooded & powerful brown horse at the stables of both, in Pawling." [PJ 2 April 1794]. They also listed HIGH FLYER, imported from England. Their stable was listed in the 2nd ad as 2 miles north of Quaker Hill Meeting house and 4 miles south of Andrew Morehouse's.

The following ad dates the end of the partnership: "Take notice - All those indebted to the estate of William Hollaway dec'd and Richard Howard for mares put to the horse Highflyer in 1793 and Figure and Highflyer in 1794 must settle up. RICHARD HOWARD, WILLIAM HOLLAWAY. Federal City, Pawling town, July 13, 1795." He did not give up the breeding business but found a new partner: he and Joseph Whitely advertised horses PAYMASTER and SHAKESPEARE for stud in 1799. [PJ 7 May 1799].

Richard Howard was a customer at the Campbell store in Pawling in 1795-99 and his unnamed daughter and Agrippa Martin dealt on his account. [DCSB JJ:70, 392; KK:65]. He was in Pawling in 1790 at 1-1-3 between Joseph Holloway the 2nd and Richard Parks. He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on a house and farm valued at $3,436 and personal property worth $1,298. In 1800 his listing was 2-1-0-1-0 and 0-1-0-1-0 and 1 slave and he was between Joseph Holloway and Peter Noxon. In 1810 he was listed in Dover at 0-1-1-0-1 and 0-1-0-0-1 between Phebe Allen and Daniel Butts.

Richard Howard of Dover, Dutchess Co., NY wrote his will 26 January 1813; proved 27 January 1815. He named sons: Richard, William and Joseph and named the three sons and James Grant executors. Witnesses were James Ketcham and Benjamin Noxon Jr. Letters on the Administration of his estate were granted to Benjamin Sherman 28 Jan. 1815. [DCW D:590].

Richard Howard 2nd (sic) of Dover died 8 Jan. 1815. His brother William H. Howard estimated value of estate at $3,000. He renounced in favor of Benjamin Sherman of Dover. Estate filed 28 Jan. 1815. Benjamin Sherman, Ebenezer Stevens and James Ketcham, all of Dover on bond of $5,000. [DCW box 824].

[53] John Hicks was an insolvent and Richard Howard was a creditor, per notice in the Poughkeepsie Journal of 9 April 1791.

[54] William and Deborah (Duncan) Howard had children: i. George, b. 20 June 1816; m. Anne Thome 14 June 1842. He died 11 June 1885: ii. John, b. 29 April 1819 at Dover; m. Louisa Catherine Placeway 24 Nov. 1852 at Hamberg, MI. He died 29 Nov. 1904 at Hamburg: iii. Lucille, b. 1822; died 15 March 1886.

11. EDWARD^5 HOWARD, (Edward$^{4-3}$, Matthew^2, Edward^1), was born 26 April 1763 and married Susannah dau. of Agrippa and Susannah (Marsh) Martin, sister to Daniel Martin. She was mentioned in the will of her mother written 1833.[55] Edward Howard Jr. was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on a house and farm valued at $1,825.50 and personal property worth $140. He owed a tax of $1.96. Edward Howard was a Duncan store customer ca. 1812-22. [DCSB H:179, L:7, 29]. Edward Howard Jr. was listed in Pawling in 1800 at 0-0-0-1-0 and 1-1-0-1-0 between Peter Corbin and Simeon Aldridge. He was probably the man in Pawling in 1810 at 1-0-1-0-1 and 1-1-1-1-0 between Anthony Aldridge and Timothy Butler. Aldridge was next to Thomas and Stephen Howard. He was probably the man in Pawling in 1820 at 0-0-0-1-0-1 and 0-1-0-0-2 between Abel Chase and Leonard Frost. He was a customer at the Campbell store in Pawling in 1799 and was next to Stephen in the account. [DCSB KK:71]. No record of death or children, although it would appear he had several daughters and one or two sons.

12. PATIENCE^5 HOWARD, (Edward$^{4-3}$, Matthew^2, Edward^1), was born 8 Nov. 1764 and married as his 4th wife, John Howard, 28 Nov. 1784 at Hart's Village (Millbrook, NY).[56] Another account claims they married at the home of Jonathan Dennis in the Clove, Beekman Patent.[57] Note that Matthew^4, William^3 Howard leased part of the farm formerly Jonathan Dennis. His ancestry has not been determined but he was almost certainly a cousin.[58]

He married first, Lucy, possibly dau. of Edward and Eleanor (Osborn) Upton,[59] but she died 1778 in a storm on a trip to Nova Scotia. He married 2nd, 21 Dec. 1780, at Liverpool, Queens Co., NS, Hannah, b. 17 July 1759 at Plymouth, MA, dau. of Theodesius and Hannah (Burbank) Ford, widow of Perez Tinkham. Hannah died ca. 1781. He married third at Liverpool, Maria, b. 23 Dec. 1765, dau. of Capt. John and Phoebe (Freeman) West. She died 30 June 1782, age 16. He married Patience Howard in 1784.

[55] Some records claim Edward Howard married 2nd in 1818 to Abigail Sherman but this will would tend to disprove that. Susannah (Marsh) Martin mentioned two deceased daus. in her will but mentioned dau. Susannah Howard as if she were alive. DCW I:411.

[56] "Patience married John Howard, an officer in the British Army, whom she married during the Revolutionary war." DCCBR 699.

[57] Research by Bruce A. and Katherine J. Hamlin, Pedigree Resource file, # 512114.

[58] Some researchers on this family, e.g. Len Howard, have felt that this John Howard was born 11 Oct. 1734 in Simsbury, CT, son of John Howard and came to Dutchess Co. with his brother Elisha. The John Howard who came to Dutchess must have been John Sr. with his son Elisha, because he was taxed as early as 1753, two years younger than he would usually be taxed. This Howard family lived in Amenia while John Howard the Loyalist lived in Stanford on the 107 acre farm.

[59] This is considered possible only because of Paul Upton's being on the bond for Howard. Upton Genealogy does not list a dau. Lucy for Edward Upton.

John Howard was taxed in Beekman from June 1763 through June 1768 and was assessed in June 1763 at £1 and in June 1767 at £2. John Howard of Beekman, yeoman, gave a mortgage of £226 to Mary Elmendorph, merchant of Kingston, on 26 June 1770. John Howard of Charlotte Precinct, DC was a noted Loyalist and many records about his life have survived.

He was most likely the John Howard, Alias Daniel Fagan, of Beekman who was granted a pardon 4 July 1768. [?? P. 773].[62] John Howard of the Nine Partners was brought before the ConC Board at their meeting at Conner's Tavern in Fishkill 19 Dec. 1776 by Joseph Haff of the Nine Partners. Haff testified that Howard and five others were all active Tories and had absconded for some time, but that John Howard and two others, Richard Peters and Thomas Tobias, had returned. He stated that since their return: "a Number of Young Men who lived in their Neighborhood were Missing, and as they suppose went off with some of the Above Persons." The meeting held Tuesday 15 July 1777 heard testimony from Frederick Clink: "being duly sworn, Deposeth & saith, That shortly before he went down to the Enemy, last fall, Peter Coonly son of Johannis Coonly came to the Dep^t and Informed him that John Howard was at his Father's & wanted to see the Dep^t. That accordingly the Dep^t went down to old Coonly's, & when he came there, he was told by Coonly that Howard was gone to Obadiah Griffin's Sen^r & that he must go there. That the Dep^t accordingly went to Griffin's, where he found Howard, with several other Persons, at which Time and Place Howard prevailed on the Dep^t to go off, That Griffin was present and heard Howard persuad^g the Dept." [ConC 31-2, 335].

Melancthon Smith, Sheriff of Dutchess County posted a notice in the local paper 17 April 1780: "Whereas at a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, Christian Tobias, late of Charlotte Precinct, in Dutchess County, Physician; Joshua Gidney, late of Charlotte precinct, in the county aforesaid, yeoman; John Howard, late of Charlotte Precinct, in Dutchess County, yeoman, [plus several others], were severally indicted for adhering to the enemies of the people of this state; these are therefore to notify such of the said several persons [that they will have their assets confiscated]." 1780. [NYP]. His estate was confiscated 13 April 4th year of Independence and one report claims it sold for 9 shillings.[63]

In 1781 a legal action was brought by the People against Joseph Ford, and John Simpson gave witness against the following: David DeLong [Long in original], John Howard, Joshua Anderson, Moses Shaw, John Worden, Mordicai Lester, Jacob Mott, Peter Clement, Simeon Ostrom, Thomas Rubble and John Rubble. [GS 12 Oct. 1781].

Simon Flagler testified 26 Feb. 1787 at St. Johns that: "[He] lived in Dutchess Co. joined the Brit. in New York in 1779. He had been in before and had once endeavored to get 80 men within the Lines to join Capt. Howard. (etc.)" [UEL pt. II, p. 887]. A John Howard (not noted as a Captain) was listed on muster rolls for Lieut. Col. Stephen DeLancey's Company, 2nd Battalion, Brigadier General Oliver DeLancey's Brigade, (Southern Campaign) on 29 Nov. 1779 at Savannah, GA. He was a prisoner with the rebels. His name is also on musters from 24 Feb. 1781 to 24 April 1781, then from 25 April to 24 June 1781, then from 25 Oct. 1781 to 24 Dec. 1781, all at Savannah, GA. He was listed as a prisoner on all. He was listed as a prisoner on a muster for Capt. Haws Hatch's Company, 1st Battalion, Oliver DeLancey's Brigade at Savannah 25 April 1782 to 24 June 1782. He was listed as prisoner on a muster roll of Capt. Barent Roorback's Company, First Battalion, Oliver DeLancey's Brigade at Little Plains, (Southern Campaign) 25 Dec. 1782-24 Feb. 1783. In a description of officers in the Orange Rangers is found: "Captain John Howard, born in America, previously a farmer, served 7 years in Provincial Corps."[64]

"John Howard was taken prisoner (18?) June 1776 and tried on his general character, a consequence for his allegiance to the King. He escaped to join the Royal Army, leaving his wife Lucy and seven children behind. Sometime in the Spring the Commissioners of Sequestration seized and sold his personal estate: a farm of over 107 acres and livestock. In the Fall his wife and seven of their eight children were sent to New York with just one set of clothing each. There, they were boarded onto a ship headed for Nova Scotia where he and the eldest son Edward were. They were lost in a hurricane of September 1778 or 1779 enroute to Halifax. One might speculate that this ship was possibly the ill-fated Bermuda which sailed 11 September 1778 from New York to Halifax. Perez Tinkham was said to have been lost on this ship, and since John Howard married his widow, Hannah, this is a strong theory. It is obvious the two families knew one another before their marriage took place. 'July 5, 1782, Mr. Tinkham's Shallop arrives from Halifax, brings a confirmation of death of Mrs. Mariah Howard, Capt. John Howard's young wife, the daughter of Capt. John West of this town. She was enoculated for the small pox.'[65]

Muster rolls list him as a Captain in the Corps of New York Volunteers from 10 Nov 1776 to as late as April 1778. By 16 Oct 1777 there were 300 or more men in three companies under Major Alexander Grant.[66] In July 1778 Captain John Coffin of the King's Orange Rangers exchanged companies with Captain John Howard. Records show him being recommissioned as Captain of the Rangers 29 July 1778. At the end of the War he retired with half-pay for life, effective 25 October 1783. In April of 1786 John Howard wrote that he had been unable to report the losses of his confiscated land in Charlotte Precinct, New York before the allotted time had expired. He stated his residence to be Nova Scotia from 15 July 1783 until 25 March 1784. After his fourth marriage to Patience Howard in New York, he and his new bride went to New Brunswick where he discovered that his agent had not included his name in the grant of Quaco made in 1784. He then made a new application. It was not until 1796 that the authorities in Fredericton finally approved the grant. In 1798 Capt. John Howard reported he had given up half his land and had settled four families on it, leaving him about 500 acres out of the original 1200. On 17 February 1810 he requested from Martin Hunter, President of His Majesty's Council and Commander in Chief of New Brunswick. Esquire, an additional 2000 acres for the accommodation of his ten children.

John Howard was buried on 4 July 1824, three days following his death. His wife Patience survived him and drew an officer's widow's pension until at least 1829. On 16 September 1824 Patience Howard swore before a justice that she had married John Howard 28 November 1784 in Dutchess County, New York. Her brother Edward Howard also swore to the marriage on 11 Feb 1825."[67]

"John Howard from Dutchess Co., NY. He served as a Captain with the Kings Orange Regiment during the War. He was granted a townlot at Carleton in 1785, and received subsequent grants in Kings Co., and Saint John Co. He served as a Magistrate for many years for Saint John City and County. He died 1 July 1824 age 81. His wife Patience died 11 March 1856 aged 91. Both are buried in St. Paul's Anglican Churchyard, Lakeside, Hampton Parish, Kings Co."[68]

On 22 Feb. 1787 he testified at St. Johns on behalf of Thomas Barker, formerly of Beekman and Crum Elbow, DC. He stated that he knew Barker and had visited his house in Charlotte Precinct.[69] He also testified in behalf of

13. THOMAS HOWARD, (Edward), was born 14 May 1770 in Beekman and m. 24 Oct. 1793 at Pawling [PR 33], Lucy, b. 23 Sept. 1767, dau. of Caleb[5] and Sophia (Billings, Stoddard) Haynes.[74] He evidently had a relationship with Mary, the dau. of Jeremiah Sabin from 1 September 1791 until 17 December 1792 and she became pregnant. Her father brought an action against Howard in the Court of Common Pleas in Jan. 1793. Sabin charged that Howard: "with force and arms &c. at Paulingstown in Dutchess County and within the jurisdiction of this Court made assaults upon Mary Sabin, spinster[,] the daughter and then servant of the said Jeremiah and beat and wounded and evil intreated her and debauched her and carnally new (sic) her impregnated and got her with child whereby the said Jeremiah lost the comfort and service of his said daughter and servant for a long time, to wit during all the time aforesaid and was forced and obliged to be at great labour and trouble and to lay out a large sum of money, to wit, fifty pounds in maintaining and taking care of her in her sickness and lying in after the said child and also that the said Thomas upon the several days aforesaid at the place aforesaid and within the jurisdiction aforesaid with force and arms &c. broke and entered the dwelling house of the said Jeremiah and greatly disturbed him in his quiet possession and enjoyment .. (etc.)" Sabin sued for £300 and Howard evidently was still in jail in April 1793. Mary Sabin, by Jeremiah Sabin, her best friend, [and brother], sued Thomas Howard. The court noted that Jeremiah was under age. [CP 19 Jan. 1793, 23 May 1794, AD 13493]. This child was possibly Maurice Howard who was b. 21 March 1793 in DC and died 18 Sept. 1873. He m. Matilda Sabin 24 Jan. 1822 in Ohio. He was also known as Morris Howard.[75]

Thomas Howard was a customer at the Campbell store in Pawling in 1795-99 and his wife, Eli Davis and Stephen Howard dealt with him. [DCSB JJ:6, 28, 34, 51, 351; KK:66]. He was not listed in Pawling in 1790 but in 1800 he was at 1-1-0-1-0 and 3-0-0-1-1 between Joseph B. Wood and Sanford Haynes. In 1810 he was in Pawling at 1-1-0-1-0 and 2-2-1-1-0 between Lucretia Elderton and William Wallace. He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on a house and farm valued at $433.75 and personal property worth $90. He owed a tax of 42 cents.

He[76] was a Merritt store customer in 1806 and a Duncan store customer in 1812. [DCSB II:G:50, DCSB J:160, K:95]. On 17 Nov. 1802 Thomas Howard and Lucy, tanner of Pawling, gave a mortgage of $750 to Peter Akin on 60 acres of land in Pawling. The land bounded the Willis Line, SE corner of Sanford Haynes, a road from William Pearce to Caleb Haynes Sr., the NE corner of Samuel Anderson, James Grant and Job Crawford. [M 9:252]. [75] Query in DC Rootsweb by <crosswdm@juno.com> 5/97. There is an apparent conflict in the dates here. Jeremiah Sabin seems to imply that his daughter already had the child in Jan. 1793. Perhaps he was suing for the costs yet to come after the child was born.

[76] As Thomas Howard 2nd.

Sanford Haynes and Hannah of Pawling gave a mortgage of $250 to Thomas Howard on 40 acres of land in Pawling that bounded the Willis Line, William Pearce and a spring near Mt. Tom. [M 9:251]. A deed of 16 Oct. 1805 refers to land Caleb Haynes sold to Thomas Howard. [D 21:496]. On 16 June 1810 Nathan Shaw and Sarah gave a mortgage of $500 to Thomas Howard on 22 acres in Pawling that bounded Howard. [M 15:270]. On 21 March 1818 they gave a mortgage of $1,700 to Justus Sheldon on 47 acres 3 roods and 30 rods of land in Pawling. Thomas Howard Jr. witnessed the mortgage. [M 24:239]. Lucy Howard took a removal from Oblong to Nine Partners with her husband 13 Oct. 1806. [NPMM]. He died 1 July 1845 and was buried in the Pittsbury Cemetery at Washington Hollow. [OGDC 212].

14. EDWARD W.^{5} HOWARD, (William$^{4-3}$, Matthew^{2}, Edward^{1}), was probably born ca. 1750 and married Elizabeth ___. He took over the leased farm from his father in the Clove area of the patent. Edward Howard signed the AofA in Beekman and supported the war: Hendrick Wycoff gave a report 5 May 1779 on flour he had purchased at local mills for the War effort. He reported that Edward Howard had 42 casks of flour [valued] at £9 at the mill of Thomas Netheway [Netheway's mill was in the Clove] in Beekman's Precinct. [GCP #2274].

His farm was in the Clove, part of the 8th allotment of the division of the Beekman estate, and was 100 acres, as noted 3 May 1786. The farm was rated "Good" and called for wheat rent of 10 bushels, 2 fowls and 1 day riding per year. The land was valued at 50 shillings per acre, quite high, for a total value of £250. A note attached stated: "I think part of this farm in the Dover lot." [ELP H:14]. A note in the rent books reads: "Beekmantown, 29 Nov. 1790. On the 1st of May next I, Edward Howard promise to pay to miss Catherine Livingston £15/17 with interest. Wheat will be accepted at $1 per bushel." On 30 Dec. 1794 he paid £16/5/8 on the note (per John Cox). [ELP BOX 148 f:10].

Edward Howard was taxed in Beekman from 1775 through 1778 and was assessed at £1 in 1775 and £4 in 78. He was in Beekman in 1790 at 2-2-6 between Joseph Dennis and William Tanner. On 20 June 1792 Edward W. Howard bought two parcels of land from the Sheriff of Dutchess County for £170. The land was 22 acres and a storehouse in Rombout and 20 acres in Philipstown. The land had been sold by Jacob Bogardus to Timothy Ketcham and Ketcham borrowed £695/1/4 from Howard and the property was put up at auction for non-payment. On 10 Feb. 1796 Edward W. Howard, yeoman of Fishkill, and Elizabeth, his wife sold the 22 acres at Fishkill Landing to John DeWint, gentlemen of Cedar Grove, DC for £410. [D 14:61, 64].

Edward Howard of the Clove was a Duncan store customer ca. 1790-95. [DCSB D:469, H:183]. He took up a stray in Beekman in 1793 and was a jury foreman 22 Jan. 1795 for the Court of General Sessions in Dutchess. He was involved in several legal actions: William Paddock and Mary Hall were witnesses for Jacob Fowler in a suit against Edward W. Howard. Fowler was awarded £50/16 and 6p damages. [CP 30 March 1796]. James Clapp was indicted for assault and Edward W. Howard was his surety. When Henry ii. Henry, born ca. 1770-2 and lived in Fishkill. He was not on the 1790 census roll. Henry Howard was indicted and was bound in £20 and Edward W. Howard his surety in £10. William Tanner and Francis Ferguson were bound as witnesses against Henry Howard. [18 Jan 1793 GS]. He was tried on assault & battery. The people's evidence was William Tanner, Francis Ferguson, Robert Dennis, William Clark and Nathaniel Rogers. The witnesses for the defendant were Jonathan Dennis, Isaac Vail, Andrew Moore and Gideon Thompson, the last two were Quakers and affirmed. Howard was found guilty and fined £5. [GS 25 Jan. 1794]. Henry Howard was in Fishkill Town, DC in 1800 at 1-0-0-1-0 and 1-0-1-0-0 between John Van Amburgh and Abraham Van Voorhis. He was not in Dutchess Co. in 1810 and may be the man at page 165 of the Ontario Co., NY census. Another man of this name was in NYC, page 233 of the roll.

Richard Howard was in Fishkill Town, DC in 1800 at 1-0-0-1-0 and 0-0-1-0-0 between Egbert Bogardus and Abraham R. Bogardus. He may be the man on page 188 Columbia Co. 1810 census.

iii. Edward W.; m. Deborah ___. Edward Howard was in Beekman in 1810 at 1-1-1-0-0 and 0-0-1-0-1 with 1 cow, 1 horse and 150 sheep. His widowed mother was probably living with him. He was between John G. Lane and Jesse Underhill. Edward W. Howard and Deborah of Beekman gave a mortgage of $300 to Jeremiah Emigh 22 May 1816 on 2 acres of land in Beekman that bounded the road from Jesse Underhill to Andrew Sincerbox. [M 22:530].

15. PONTIUS[5] HOWARD, (Zephaniah[4], William[3], Matthew[2], Edward[1]), was born 7 Feb 1762 and married Sarah ___. Pontius Howard kept an active account at the Duncan store from about 1790 and his wife, William Howard and David Palmer traded on his account.[80] He was in Pawling in 1790 and was listed at 1-1-3 between Robert Sweet and William Howard. He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on a house and farm valued at $457.50 and personal property worth $140. He owed

JONATHAN$^{?5}$ HOWARD, (?William$^{4-3}$, Mathew^{2}, Edward^{1}), was born 1753 and married Margaret Walters, b. 1755, probably dau. of Thomas Walters who was a customer at the Duncan store in Dover ca. 1790. He served in the 5th (Beekman) Company of DC Militia. Jonathan Howard was one of the subscribers in August 1789 to the local society to prevent horse thievery. He pledged 8 shillings.[104] He was in Pawling in 1790 at 1-0-0 between Joseph Elsworth and Benjamin Hammond.

Jonathan Howard was a very steady customer at the Duncan store. He appears to have been at the store almost every other day and purchased rum at every visit. On 20 Oct. 1790 William Howard was at the store and the day book reads: "Dr. (debit) per your ?youngest, brother 3 pints rum 2/3"

The next entry reads: "William Howard, Cr. (credit) per brother by cash 2s"

The next entry reads: "Jonathan Howard, Dr. self, ¼ rum 1/6" [DCSB D:183].

On 19 May 1790 Isaac Straight purchased a pint of rum on his account. [DCSB D:17].

On 12 May 1791 Edward Adams charged to his account. The credit side of the journal reads 22 Oct. 1791: "On settlement for schooling & All comp lete."

In 1792 and 1793 Abraham Denny and Oliver Briggs offset his account. Hannah Sheldon and Mary Sheldon paid to offset the account in 1793 and 1794. A note in 1794 reads: “Mistakes of John Howard account in Feb. 1793.” On 27 June 1794 there is an offset for schooling, £4/13. [DCSB H:176, 190, 221].

Family records claim he was a blacksmith but he evidently taught school as well. He went to Schoharie County, NY where he died 1833 and was buried in Broome Center. His wife died 1830. He is not found in NYS in 1800. There is a Jonathan Howard in Stephentown, Rensselaer Co., NY in 1800[105] at 2-2-0-0-1 and 0-1-1-0-1 between Bunyan Howard and Powel Gardner but his man was there in 1790 as well. Jonathan Howard was in Green Co., NY in 1810, page 245 of the roll.

Marshall -- while trying to find something else, came across something I had microfilmed several years ago at the FHC. However, I did not reference it and so to not know what the filme number is.

A SKETCH Of the Nine Partners and
A HISTORY
Of the Settlement of Harford
Susquehanna Country, PA
written by Caleb Richardson, Jr.
in 1837
for his Grandson, Caleb Judson Richardson
He called it A LEGACY

I was so surprised when I originally found this several years ago, as I had just learned about Nine Partners. I think there was a Quaker settlement there (you can check this out.) All I filmed was the cover page (see above) and a photo of the stone monument dated 1790 with 9 names on it. However, the film was so bad that I now can´even read the names thereon. One is Thayer; one Thatcher.

Perhaps this info will help you locate this info. On the Deull info you sent, you are not tying this into the Mary Duell who married a Toy, are you? I think the spelling is different and also people are in wrong area. However, perhaps they fit into your genealogy.

Hope some of this helps == Fran Wooley

When I order LDS films, I never put item number. Doing so, sometimes causes great surprises on the other 12 items if a large film.

By order of the Committee,
DIRCK G. BRINCKERHOFE, Chairman.

Fishkill, August 23, 1775.

Sir:—Enclosed is the return of the persons who have signed the Association, and of those who have refused. In the latter you find many erasures, occasioned by their signing afterwards. This affair has been delayed thus long, on account of pursuing lenient measures.

I am, by order of the Committee, your most obedient servant,
DIRCK G. BRINCKERHOFF, Chairman.

Therefore Samuel Isaac Pettet born 10 May 1780 at Jefferson Co., NY was/either 22 or 23 years old, when the (Mary) daughter of the Prime Minister of Canada gave the Pettets and Guilbets lands in Haldimand Township, Vernonville Prince Edward Island, Coburge Coburg and Stoney Island.

I ordered Prince Edward Film when reviewing old New Jersey records. ——— they kept referring to Prince Edward Co.? Either Virginia or Canada - which in the early to mid 1780's was part of Nova Scotia?

Hope both items help. Please Note the woobeys — reverse?

Fran:

Great news/discovery. Since 1970, I've been trying to crack my Isaac Pettet Family — my 3rd great-grandfather. (Isaac^{6}, Joseph^{5} Jonathan^{4} Nebetta^{3}, Ross^{2} Marshall^{1}) great-grandfather Jonathan Pettet's (M.D.) diary Was was misleading — uncertain and not very reliable.

I kept thinking Isaac was Daniel or Timothy Isaac Pettet/Pettet. I knew from Canadian records — lots of Daniels went to Prince Edward Co.; so I ordered Prince Edward Canada Film #1378624 and Bingo! Surprise!

"PETIT, SAMUEL 1803

License of Occupation: 84 acres.

The island on which Petit resides called Petit's Island. On the west side of Schooner Passage, Harbor."

Known in family as Stoney Island Ontario/Jefferson Co., NY. (Diary calles Harbor — Sackett! M+H)
